THE FENIAN TRIALS.

The Case of Rev. D. F. Lynedes—The Evidence in Detail—Acquittal of the Prisoner.

TORONTO, Oct. 30.—Reported by Lynedes—The Evidence in Detail—Acquittal of the Prisoner.

TORONTO, Oct. 30.—Reported by Lynedes—The entire court is crowded to hear the trial of Rev. D. F. Lynedes, the Roman Catholic priest charged with treason. Chief Justice John Wilson, and Justices Hagarty and Burns, the full bench of the Queen's Bench, are present. Solicitor-General Gwynne, Q.C., and Mr. D. F. Lynedes, would take place this morning. A large number of people, long before the hour appointed, had congregated in the vicinity of the court-house, in the hope of gaining admission to obtain a seat. Although the court-house was crowded, and the utmost vigilance was exercised by the police and other officials, many persons succeeded in gaining admittance, and the court presented a very animated appearance. Among the spectators were a number of priests, but no one from the Bishop's palace. The prisoner, Rev. D. F. Lynedes, who was charged with treason-felony, was brought into court by the gaoler, and placed in the dock. He was dressed in a black suit of clothes, and appeared to be in good health and spirits. He was attended by Mr. Lynedes, his counsel, and Mr. Lynedes, his solicitor, and the proceedings, at the very commencement, assumed a deep interest.

THE CITY GUARD.

The day has been one of unusual quiet. At an early hour in the morning, crowds began to be attracted into the streets about the public offices and the newspaper offices, but such good order and quietness prevailed that any stranger would never have dreamt of the existence of a disturbance. The authorities were cautious, and the utmost vigilance was exercised by the police and military. Every one seemed to be aware that the day was one of excitement, and the consequences, if any disturbance, were very serious.

The authorities were cautious, and the utmost vigilance was exercised by the police and military. Every one seemed to be aware that the day was one of excitement, and the consequences, if any disturbance, were very serious.

The Police Board had on the 5th regular Board and about four hours' session. The Board is composed of the best people of the city and officers of the line, police-court notary, running the police force in a business manner.

All the city offices were strongly guarded, as they have been continuously since Thursday evening, and Sheriff Wentworth, with a large force of the street there, were plenty of their constables at all points where they services were likely to be required.

TROOPS AT HAND.

Everybody knows that a considerable body of troops (regulars) have been brought into the city since yesterday noon, but very few persons have seen them. They are quartered in the Old Custom-House.

General Cooley came over from Washington at two o'clock, and General Grant arrived early this evening.

THE CITY COMMISSIONERS IN CUSTODY.

The Police Commissioners held a long consultation with the Mayor and Chief of Police, and after a series of hostile demonstrations, Dandeker, the Chief of Police, and Commissioner Kane, at about midnight the police thought that the peaceable course would be to arrest the Commissioners, and at the very moment of every man in the police force knew that they were to be arrested, and were known they began their labors—after they had been informed that the Commissioners were in session—
